

MEET YOUR 2010 OFFICERS

LISA HURLEY
President

Lisa Hurley moves up to serve as President. Lisa has been the dealer principal of Renner Motors since 1999. She has worked in the automotive business for 24 years. Her past experience ranges from F & I and Sales in other dealerships to working her way up the ranks at Mahan Motors before it became Renner Motors.

She is a member of the First Christian Church, Harrison Lake Country Club, Fraternal Order of Police, Moose, Chamber of Commerce and Columbus Service League. She currently serves on the Chamber of Commerce Women's Professional Development Committee, the Columbus Service League's community research committee, the Millrace Center "Baby Boomer" committee, and is working with a committee on raising the awareness of the growing number of kids in need of both short & long term foster care in her community.

Lisa is a graduate of Indiana University and the NADA Dealer Academy. She has a daughter, Victoria, 20 and she and husband, Brad, adopted 7 year old son, Jackson, from Russia five years ago.

MARK FUSON
Vice President

Mark Fuson, president of Fuson Automotive, Inc. in Terre Haute moves up to serve as ADAI's 2010 Vice President.

Mark is a 1979 graduate of Indiana State University with a BS in Business Management. He began his automobile career as a salesperson in 1979 and in 1986 graduated from the GM University of Automotive Management.

Mark is the current President of the Terre Haute New Car & Truck Dealers Association, The Froderman Charitable Foundation and the Economic Development Corporation of Terre Haute and the Hospital Authority of Vigo County. He also serves on several boards: Morris Plan Bank of Terre Haute, Rose Hulman Board of Associates, Union Hospital Foundation, John Paul II Catholic High School Administrative Board, Regional Board of the Selective Service System for the U.S., Carmelite Monastery Advisory Committee and has been a member of the Kiwanis Club of Terre Haute for more than 30 years.

Mark and his wife, Susan, were married in 1979 and have three children: Mary E. age 22; David E. age 21; and Grace E. age 21.

LYNN KIMMEL
Treasurer

Lynn Kimmel moves up to serve as the 2010 ADAI Treasurer. Lynn is President of Lockhart Automotive Group encompassing the LLK Corporation d/b/a Saturn of Indianapolis, Saturn of Greenwood, Saturn of Fishers, Lockhart Cadillac Inc. and Lockhart Hummer Inc. which is co-owned with her brother, Marc Lockhart. Lynn is responsible for daily operations of the three Saturn dealerships while Marc is responsible for Cadillac / Hummer. Lynn is a member of the Saturn Franchise Operations Team, the National Dealer Council, the Indiana State Chamber Board of Directors, Co-Chair of the Saturn Regional Marketing Task Force, Co-Chair of the GM Women's Retail Initiative.

In 1975 Lynn joined the family business. The company founder was Freda L. Lockhart, Lynn's mother, and continues to grow with the family including Lynn's daughter, Kristin Smith, in the Saturn franchise and Marc's children, Corey & Lindsay Lockhart, in the Cadillac / Hummer division.

Lynn and her husband of 31 years, Charles, together have 3 children and 3 grandchildren.

JOE CRAIG
Secretary

Joe Craig is GM and President of Craig Toyota in Madison. Craig Toyota was established in 1969 and is the oldest Toyota dealership in Indiana.

Before joining the family business in January of 1991, Joe worked as a Staff Accountant at a local CPA firm and was controller for 11 years at Madison Bank & Trust Company. He attended Indiana University Southeast and graduated from the General Motors Dealership Management course in 1992.

Joe has served on the board of several community organizations such as The United Way, Chamber of Commerce, and a founding Director of the Community Foundation. In 1996 he was recognized as the Community Service Award winner for the Chamber of Commerce. As a Toyota dealer, Joe served two terms as a dealer council representative to the Chicago Toyota Regional office.

Joe resides in Madison with his wife, Susan, and two sons.